Abstract Title: Correlates and Predictors of Delinquent Behavior Among African American Youth Living in Urban Public Housing

November 2, 2021

Dear Charles M. S. Birore,

Congratulations! The ORAL PAPER entitled "Correlates and Predictors of Delinquent Behavior Among African American Youth Living in Urban Public Housing" has been accepted for presentation for the 26th Annual Conference of the Society for Social Work and Research

(SSWR) to be held in person, January 12-16, 2022, in Washington, DC, at the Marriott Marquis Washington DC hotel. Click here for virtual conference components. The Program Committee is in the process of scheduling this presentation and will send another e-mail with the exact date and time in mid-November. The preliminary schedule-at-a-glance is available at <https://secure.sswr.org/2022-conference-home/preliminary-schedule-at-a-glance/>. Due to the complexity of the program schedule, we are unable to accept scheduling requests.

Please be reminded that all in person and virtual presenters/speakers must register for the conference and be a current 2022 SSWR member at the time of their presentation(s). This includes ALL oral paper and poster presenters, symposia organizers, symposia paper presenters and discussants, and workshop and roundtable speakers.

Please note that online conference registration will open early November. We will send an announcement when it is available. The hotel reservation site is now available at <https://secure.sswr.org/2022-conference-home/hotel-reservations/>. SSWR hotel discounted rate deadline is December 15, 2021.

Congratulations again on the acceptance of this oral paper.

Thank you for your participation in SSWR. We look forward to seeing you in Washington, DC!

Sincerely,

Shenyang Guo, PhD

Vice President and 2022 Conference Chair
